ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
(CHARGING OF LIABILITIES)

Dear Ms. Reyes,

This letter serves to inform you that, based on the Final Report we received dated November 28, 2025, in accordance with company policies and procedures, you will be held liable for your negligence of duties as the Asst. Vice President of Quezon City III – Novaliches which have resulted in significant damages to the branch's daily operations.

Details of Liabilities:

The Quezon City III – Novaliches is currently facing difficulties in collecting payments with 94 counts of missed paid clients composed of Ghost Released clients and no proper credit investigation by the previous Branch Manager with a net risk loan balance amounting to Php496,095.00 pesos only. Additionally, there is a shortage of Cash on Hand amounting to Php112,000, unpaid house rental amounting to Php38,115, double clients accounts amounting to Php9,480, unclaimed MCBU Return and forge signature amounting to Php45,715 with a total amount OF Php701,405.00 pesos only.

Reason for Charging:

As the Asst. Vice President, your primary duties and responsibilities is to monitor and check thoroughly specially in field works to avoid this kind of difficulties. Sadly, you have failed to perform your task resulted to arising of Ghost Released clients and unchecked irregularities. Your actions have resulted in significant consequences, which have directly impacted the company's operations and reputation.

Terms of settlement:

In light of these circumstances, the management has made a decision to hold you accountable for the above matter or issues. Accordingly, you will be charged amounting to Php100,000.00 (One hundred thousand) pesos only, as part of your liabilities. To facilitate the repayment, this amount will be deducted from your monthly payroll for twenty (20) months that will take effect on December 2025, with monthly deduction amounting to Php5,000.00 (Five thousand) pesos only, until such amount will be fully paid.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to reach out the HR Department of your direct supervisors.
